Bringing Out the Best in Others is What We Do Best

UDS is a full-service human services organization offering a comprehensive suite of care solutions that enables individuals to live the way they want. For more than 60 years, we've provided a variety of programs and services enabling individuals throughout Pennsylvania and beyond to reconnect with their families and communities, live more freely, and improve their overall quality of life. We are driven by our love and value of people and empower those we serve by simplifying their path to care.
